Moving Toward Sunday Worship

A special committee has been working on acquiring the needed technology for live streaming the Sunday service. On September 1 that committee met with the worship committee (on Zoom.) We are now refining the procedures for returning to Sunday worship with live streaming, so that those who cannot attend Sunday worship can watch it on the internet live as it happens. We look toward approval of these procedures by the session within a few days. I did not want to delay the September newsletter any longer. So, for now our plan is to record worship on Saturdays, September 5 and 12. If the session is able to approve all the procedures for Sunday worship, we will then send those procedures to everyone via email, along with the date when the first Sunday worship will be.
