Were You There?

African American Spiritual

Darkness
Silence
The Lord's Prayer (Unison)
A Loud Knocking Is Heard
The Resurrection Candle
Dismissal Blessing

You are welcome to remain in prayer and then depart in silence.

The service of worship tonight is taken from an early Christian service called Tenebrae, which is the Latin word for "darkness" or "shadows." Tonight's service includes the gradual extinguishing of candles until only a single candle, considered a symbol of our Lord, remains. As it grows darker and darker, we may reflect on the emotional and physical pain Jesus endured for us. Toward the end of the service, the light from the Christ candle is extinguished, typifying the apparent victory of the forces of evil over good. A loud knocking symbolizes the resurrection. The Christ Candle, now the Resurrection Candle, is lit, symbolizing the triumph of God over evil. By this light we depart this service in silence.
